4. Details of reorganization will be controlled by the Commanding General, Fourth Army, who is authorized to transfer individuals within the division as necessary, without regard to their present assignments.

5. Surplus equipment will be turned in to local supply agencies for redistribution as directed by the Chiefs of Arm or Service concerned.

6. All elements formed in the reorganization, except the 195th Field Artillery (8 inch How), and the 2nd Battalion, 132nd Engineers (Combat), will be allotted grades and ratings in accordance with paragraph 4, letter, this office, AG 221 (1-18-42) EA-A, January 21, 1942, subject, "Allotment of Grades and Ratings and Authorized Strengths to Tactical Units (less Air Corps and Service with Air Corps)." The 195th Field Artillery (8 inch How), and the 2nd Battalion, 132nd Engineers (Combat), will retain their present allotment of grades and ratings for the time being. No enlisted men will be reduced in grade or rating as a result of this reorganization. Enlisted men for whom no appropriate assignment is available will be carried as surplus in their present grades until absorbed.

7. Officers remaining surplus will pass to the control of the Commanding General, Fourth Army, for reassignment.

8. Pending the revision of Table of Organization 70-1, the retention of an Assistant Chief of Staff, G-1 in Division Headquarters is authorized.

9. Non-divisional units formed in this reorganization will be attached to the First Army.

10. Pending the issue of 8 inch howitzers, the 195th Field Artillery (8 inch How) will be organized in accordance with Table of Organization 6-41, November 1, 1940, except that Antitank Batteries (Table of Organization 6-99, October 1, 1940) and antitank sections of the battalion headquarters batteries (Table of Organization 6-86, October 1, 1940) will not be activated.

11. Headquarters, 132nd Engineer Regiment (Combat) is constituted on the active list.

By order of the Secretary of War.
