Here's a Toast to our Host
Woodrow Wilson is his name
Who has demanded the respect
Of America's good name.

We'll prove to Old Kaiser Bill
That Democracy is our game.
For Wilson's name, we will make fame
Our fighting qualities quite plain.

For Limberger Cheese, he may be strong
And Gas Bombs a little stronger,
But our "Sammies'" arms will smite the throng
And he will live to reign no longer.

Our National Sports, when they hit his ports
He'll think have raised some thunder
But in the end, he will then
Be made to see his blunder.

With Pershing up, all bases full,
And Russian Revolutions
We'll force to him the Yankee Pill
And drive him from the Oceans.

With the "Liberty Plane", in the American Game,
We'll force him from all bases,
Like the American plan, Just man to man,
We'll lick him in his trenches.

By Mess Sgt. Henry S. Dalley.
