I — SILVER STAR (Posthumous Award). Pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, and Circular 6, Headquarters Third United States Army, 26 April 1944, a Silver Star is awarded, posthumously, to the following enlisted man:

Staff Sergeant Robert M Swim, 35579575, Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action in the * * * sector, Normandy, France, 12 July 1944. When the withdrawal of his unit was necessitated by strong enemy opposition, Sergeant Swim, a rifle squad leader, exercising tactical acumen, directed his squad in an orderly manner to new positions, while himself remaining behind to cover their safe withdrawal. In rejoining his squad, he was killed by enemy action. The leadership displayed by Sergeant Swim, his gallantry in action and devotion to duty, reflect the highest credit upon his character as a soldier, and upon the military service. Entered military service from Indiana.

II — SILVER STAR. Pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, and Circular 6, Headquarters Third United States Army, 26 April 1944, a Silver Star is awarded to the following enlisted men of this command:

Staff Sergeant Ralph N Whiting, 20724123, Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action in the * * * sector, Normandy, France, on 19 July 1944. When he observed a large wrecker strike a mine and burst into flames, Sergeant Whiting went immediately into the flaming area and succeeded in evacuating an injured man trapped in the burning wreckage, to the side of the road. The enemy began to place observed mortar fire in the area, and Sergeant Whiting lifted the injured soldier to his shoulders and removed him to a place of safety. The gallant and courageous actions of Sergeant Whiting, who placed the welfare of an injured comrade above his personal safety, reflect the highest credit upon his character as a soldier and upon the military service. Entered military service from Kansas.

Sergeant John Morici, 32718488 (then private first class), Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action in the vicinity of * * * , France, on 30 July 1944. Sergeant Morici, an assistant machine gunner, together with the gunner successfully retarded an attempted enemy counterattack by exposing himself to enemy fire on his unit's flank and effectively firing his weapon until it was destroyed. Even then, he continued to harass the enemy with his pistol fire, as a result of which his unit was enabled to intercept the enemy counterattack. Sergeant Morici's zealous devotion to duty and his tenacity of purpose constitute such gallantry in action as to reflect high credit upon the military service. Entered military service from New York.

Private First Class Harry V Zarbaugh, 35415828, Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action in the * * * sector, France, 30 July 1944. Private Zarbaugh a light machine gunner, aided by his assistant gunner, successfully retarded an attempted enemy counterattack by exposing himself to enemy fire on his unit's flank and effectively firing his weapon until it was destroyed, and he was wounded by enemy hand grenades. Despite his wound, Private Zarbaugh continued to harass and delay the enemy with his pistol fire, as a result of which his unit was enabled to intercept the enemy counterattack. Private Zarbaugh's zealous devotion to duty and his tenacity of purpose constitute such gallantry in action as to reflect high credit upon the military service. Entered military service from Ohio.

III — BRONZE STAR MEDAL (Posthumous Awards). Pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, and Circular 6, Headquarters Third United States Army, 26 April 1944, a Bronze Star Medal is awarded, posthumously to the following enlisted men:

First Sergeant Warren P Schrader, 37070691, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 6 September 1944. Entered military service from Kansas.

Technical Sergeant James A Murray, 20607323, Infantry, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States in the * * * sector, Normandy, France, on 15 July 1944. Sergeant Murray, a first scout, voluntarily went forward under heavy enemy fire and, together with another enlisted man, evacuated wounded soldiers who were left behind when their unit was forced to withdraw. The brave actions of Sergeant Murray, who placed the welfare of wounded comrades above his personal safety, reflect credit upon his character as a soldier. Entered military service from Illinois.

IV -- BRONZE STAR MEDAL. Pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, and Circular 6, Headquarters Third United States Army, 26 April 1944, a Bronze Star Medal is awarded to the following officers and enlisted men of this command:

Captain Victor H English, 01310423, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 15 July to 8 September 1944. Entered military service from Oregon.

Captain Daniel C Gust, 01169991, Field Artillery, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States, in the * * * sector, France, on 10 August 1944. About 0040, 10 August 1944, a truck loaded with 105mm ammunition was set afire during an enemy bombing and strafing attack, endangering all troops and materiel of the battery and serving as a signal light for enemy aircraft and artillery. Although the area was subjected to continuous anti-personnel bombing and strafing, Captain Gust left the protection of his slit trench and supervised, directed and assisted a group of soldiers in extinguishing the fire. The heroic actions of Captain Gust, his coolness, initiative and disregard for personal safety, not only prevented destruction of the ammunition truck and considerable materiel, but undoubtedly prevented casualties among the personnel of the battery. Entered military service from North Dakota.

Captain James A Leach, 0283517, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 15 July to 8 September 1944. Entered military service from Iowa.

Captain Harvey A Smith, 0294924, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 12 September 1944. Entered military service from Texas.

Captain George A Stevens, 0408430, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service 15 to 16 August 1944. Entered military service from New York.

First Lieutenant Charles E Etchison, 01169094, Field Artillery, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States, in the * * * sector, France, on 10 August 1944. About 0040, 10 August 1944, a truck loaded with 105mm ammunition was set afire during an enemy bombing and strafing attack, endangering all troops and materiel of the battery and serving as a signal light for enemy aircraft and artillery. Although the area was subjected to continuous anti-personnel bombing and strafing, Lieutenant Etchison left the protection of his slit trench and supervised, directed and assisted a group of soldiers in extinguishing the fire. The heroic actions of Lieutenant Etchison, his coolness, initiative and disregard for personal safety, not only prevented destruction of the ammunition truck and considerable materiel, but undoubtedly prevented casualties among the personnel of the battery. Entered military service from Indiana.

First Lieutenant Orval E Faubus, 01306079, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 11 September 1944. Entered military service from Arkansas.

First Lieutenant Morton Kligerman, 01305268, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 11 September 1944. Entered military service from New York.

Second Lieutenant Carl Ermelbauer, 01325186, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 5 August 1944. Entered military service from New York.

Staff Sergeant Howard L Fonck, 20732875, Field Artillery, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States, in the * * * sector, France, on 10 August 1944. About 0040, 10 August 1944, a truck loaded with 105mm ammunition was set afire during an enemy bombing and strafing attack, endangering all troops and materiel of the battery and serving as a signal light for enemy aircraft and artillery. Although the area was subjected to continuous anti-personnel bombing and strafing, Sergeant Fonck left the protection of his slit trench and, with the aid of other soldiers, extinguished the fire. The heroic actions of Sergeant Fonck, his coolness, initiative and disregard for personal safety, not only prevented destruction of the ammunition truck and considerable materiel, but undoubtedly prevented casualties among the personnel of the battery. Entered military service from Kansas.

Staff Sergeant Adam S Harowicz, 33609009 (then private first class), Infantry, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States, in the * * * sector, Normandy, France, on 15 July 1944. Sergeant Harowicz, a scout, voluntarily went forward under heavy enemy fire and, together with another enlisted man, evacuated wounded soldiers who were left behind when their unit was forced to withdraw. The brave actions of Sergeant Harowicz, who placed the welfare of wounded comrades above his personal safety, reflect credit upon his character as a soldier. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

Staff Sergeant Eddie Hill, 34075058, Infantry, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States, in the * * * sector, Normandy, France, on 16 July 1944. Sergeant Hill was one of a group of seven soldiers who refused to withdraw when their platoon was forced back one hedgerow by an enemy counterattack. Attempting to hold its position, this group courageously withstood several counterattacks and inflicted heavy losses upon the enemy before it withdrew. In the interim, the platoon gained time to reorganize and successfully withstand another heavy counterattack. The courage and initiative on the part of Sergeant Hill reflect credit upon his character as a soldier. Entered military service from Louisiana.

Staff Sergeant Donald F Mulliner, 39027412, Field Artillery, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 15 July to 5 September 1944. Entered military service from Utah.

Staff Sergeant James S Sims, 34684773, Field Artillery, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 19 August 1944. Entered military service from Georgia.

Staff Sergeant Donald R Thompson, 20733414, Field Artillery, United States Army, for heroic service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States in the * * * sector, France, on 10 August 1944. About 0030 on 10 August a camouflage net and some 105mm ammunition were set on fire during a bombing and strafing attack by enemy aircraft, when two large bombs exploded at a gun position. Sergeant Thompson left the protection of his foxhole, exposed himself to the continuous bombing and strafing, and, with the aid of other soldiers, extinguished the fire with his bare hands. The heroic actions of Sergeant Thompson, his coolness and disregard for personal safety, not only saved the gun position from serious damage, but eliminated a dangerous fire which would have served as a reference point for enemy aircraft. Entered military service from Kansas.

Staff Sergeant Arthur L Venneman, 37002830, Infantry, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding service from 11 July to 31 August 1944. Entered military service from Kansas.
