Dear Mrs. Hoffman:

Thank you most sincerely for your letter of 16 February 1948 pertaining to your brother, the late Private First Class Patrick J. Conway, which has been referred to me.

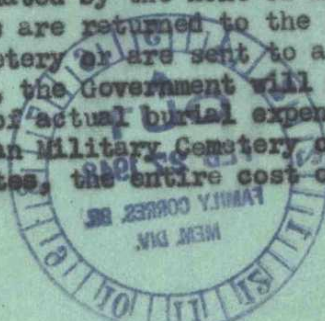

The Secretary of the Army, pursuant to the authority granted under Public Law 368, 80th Congress, has established the precedence of relatives eligible to designate the disposition of the remains of the deceased. Accordingly the widow has the prior disposition right unless she was separated, divorced or has remarried. In either of these events the disposition right reverts to the parent of the decedent the father having precedence over the mother.

Therefore, since your brother's widow has remarried, the disposition right automatically reverts to the next of kin in the line of precedence.

Inasmuch as you stated in your letter that your father is deceased, it is necessary that his death be verified, in order that we may officially amend our records to include this information. Therefore, we request that you send us a certified copy of his certificate of death.

It is also requested that a certified list or affidavit, containing the names, ages and addresses of all surviving relatives, be forwarded to enable us to determine the person legally authorized to direct the disposition of the remains of your brother.

All expenses of exhumation, preparation of remains, casketing and transportation to the city or town designated by the next of kin will be borne by the Government. When remains are returned to the United States for final burial in a private cemetery or are sent to a foreign country for burial in a private cemetery, the Government will contribute a sum not to exceed $75 toward the cost of actual burial expenses. When final interment is in a permanent American Military Cemetery overseas or in a National Cemetery in the United States, the entire cost of burial will be borne by the Government.

Dear Mrs. Conway:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your husband, Private First Class Patrick J. Conway.

These effects are being forwarded to you in one package.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your husband.

Yours very truly,
