Dear Mrs. Goetz:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Goetz:

We have received the "Request for Disposition of Remains" Form in regard to the final interment of the remains of your brother, the late Private First Class John Ehrmann.

The death certificate for your mother has been placed in our files; however, the Disposition Form is being returned for completion of those parts checked in red pencil, inasmuch as the Department of the Army records indicate that your brother, Mr. Benjamin Ehrmann, is the only authorized next of kin now having the right to sign the Disposition Form on the lower half of page 2, and thereby legally determine the final resting place of the decedent.

If Mr. Benjamin Ehrmann desires to relinquish his prior right, the eldest sister, being the next of kin in the line of precedence, will have the right to direct final disposition of your brother's remains. This right cannot pass directly to any other person. It must follow the precedence established by the Secretary of the Army. Therefore, if Mr. Ehrmann desires to relinquish his disposition authority, he should complete Part II, on the upper half of page 3 and, if you are the eldest surviving sister, you should complete those parts checked in red pencil on the lower half of page 2. In the event you are not the eldest surviving sister, then each sister older than yourself must sign Part II in the lower left corner.

If your brother prefers to record his own wishes, over his signature, a blank Disposition Form is inclosed. This must be signed by him in the presence of a Notary Public, Judge or Clerk of a Court of Record, or a Justice of the Peace.

Dear Mrs. Goetz:

We have received the "Request for Disposition of Remains" Form in regard to the final interment of the remains of your brother, the late Private First Class John Ehrmann.

The death certificate for your mother has been placed in our files; however, the Disposition Form is being returned for completion of those parts checked in red pencil, inasmuch as the Department of the Army records indicate that your brother, Mr. Benjamin Ehrmann, is the only authorized next of kin now having the right to sign the Disposition Form on the lower half of page 2, and thereby legally determine the final resting place of the decedent.

If Mr. Benjamin Ehrmann desires to relinquish his prior right, the eldest sister, being the next of kin in the line of precedence, will have the right to direct final disposition of your brother's remains. This right cannot pass directly to any other person. It must follow the precedence established by the Secretary of the Army. Therefore, if Mr. Ehrmann desires to relinquish his disposition authority, he should complete Part II, on the upper half of page 3 and, if you are the eldest surviving sister, you should complete those parts checked in red pencil on the lower half of page 2. In the event you are not the eldest surviving sister, then each sister older than yourself must sign Part II in the lower left corner.

If your brother prefers to record his own wishes, over his signature, a blank Disposition Form is inclosed. This must be signed by him in the presence of a Notary Public, Judge or Clerk of a Court of Record, or a Justice of the Peace.
